1880-2020

It's been 140 years since Henry Weston was encouraged to make more of his wonderful cider by his neighbours.

5 generations on, and the mill he founded is still family owned and run in the same fiercely independent way as the man himself first pioneered.

It's always great to look back at what we've accomplished but we're also looking forward to what's to come.

So, let's raise a glass and appreciate the passion, pride and expertise that goes into everything we do and every drop we make and celebrate every refreshing, remarkable, rewarding moment.

We are offering

free kegs of Stowford Press apple cider to our loyal stockists

From 29th June all free trade, free of tie outlets will be eligible to join in our celebration through a simple entry mechanic on our website

Outlets sign-up through our website, confirming they are free trade "free of tie", have Stowford Press apple cider installed as at 26th June and have an account with you as their chosen route to market.

By registering, outlets commit to ordering a keg of Stowford Press to release their free keg 1 deal per outlet

Campaign closes 31st July or when all 1880 free kegs have been claimed, whichever is soonest
