WELCOME TO OUR WINE PORTFOLIO

AND AN EXTRAORDINARY COLLECTION OF WINES FROM AROUND THE WORLD...

THE DIVERSE LWC WINE MERCHANTS & SHIPPERS PORTFOLIO CONSISTS OF OVER 880 DIFFERENT WINES SPANNING SIX CONTINENTS. WE WORK IN HARMONY WITH OVER 40 SUPPLIERS AND WINERIES, CREATING A FULL RANGE OF WINES DESIGNED SPECIFICALLY FOR THE ON-TRADE MARKET.

Tasting through the LWC wine range is an exhausting exercise: there are over 880 individual lines, not to mention the variety of styles and quality levels. This should not be surprising. LWC's reputation in the UK industry is extraordinary, and coming from a background of supermarket wine buying, it is wonderful to see such diverse wineries grouped together on one table, the majority of which are working exclusively with LWC.

As the son of a wine merchant, I grew up visiting vineyards and meeting winemakers, and always enjoyed the intrinsic relationship between the liquid in the bottle, the place from which it comes, and the ambitions and character of the person who created it. A good bottle of wine, like a photograph or a painting, takes you on a journey: it is a snapshot of somewhere you have been or are yet to go.

When you invest money with more expensive bottles, you expect wines that have a sense of what the French would call 'terroir'. Tasting through the LWC product range, I was struck by how they have managed this at almost every price point, delivering on their promises of quality whilst throwing up some pleasing surprises along the way. It's hard to pick out individual wines but there are a few that need a mention:

The HEALY & GRAY range shows the wine team at their most creative. Working with winemakers across the world, they blend exclusive wines that are perfectly pitched for this market. I was rewarded with the most complete own-label range I have ever tasted, from the extraordinarily rich and textural HEALY & GRAY Private Estate 'Bush Vine' Chenin Blanc from South Africa, to the minty, ripe and perfumed HEALY & GRAY Shiraz.

Their range of sparkling wines is strong, and in the most important category to get right, Prosecco Serenello delivers at a very competitive price point: green apples, honeysuckle, leesy biscuit notes and a long, dry finish. An old favourite, Champagne de Castelnau Brut N/V, perfectly illustrates where value in this famous region can be found. Rich, weighty and very grown up in style.

I am limiting myself to three still wines for this introduction: the clear, crisp and aromatic Molino del Sol Airen from Spain is the perfect tapas wine or aperitif this summer.

The Luna Azul Sauvignon Blanc, a new discovery from Chile which, with its green, fresh, herbaceous character, completely overdelivers for the price. And lastly, a Portuguese wine: the Carlos Reynolds Red, from Reynolds Wine Growers in Alentejo, which encapsulates the best of what this country does well: intense, spicy reds with a unique point of difference.

THE MARKET IS MOVING ARE YOU?

LWC WINES IS PART OF A DYNAMIC AND FAST-MOVING INDUSTRY WORTH £3.5 BILLION, OF WHICH WE ARE 11% AT £400 MILLION. WE ARE CONSTANTLY ANALYSING AND EVALUATING, IN AN ENDEAVOUR TO UNDERSTAND AND DELIVER THE BEST AND MOST APPROPRIATE PRODUCT TO OUR CUSTOMERS.

HANBAO - WORCESTER

At Hanbao we have worked with LWC since opening almost a year ago. They have always been very professional and prepared. Anne, our WDM, focuses on the key factors and ethos of our business when suggesting wines for our list, and does an excellent job of keeping everyone on track. The results have always exceeded what we promised our customers, and I think that 'over-delivering' is something that Anne and LWC takes very seriously.

Lam Family - Owners of Hanbao

HYDES BREWERY - MANCHESTER

The drinks portfolio that LWC offer suits our business very well: a great selection of real ales and spirits and a fantastic and varied range of wines from all over the world. The after-sales care is tremendous and the team has a real passion for wine. I have always found them to be knowledgeable and accessible with a genuine interest in our business. Whether it is staff training, wine-tasting sessions or unusual requests, LWC go that little bit extra which makes all the difference.

Chris Commerford - General Manager

BLUE MOON THAI RESTAURANT - LANCASTER

We have been a customer of LWC's for approximately 5 years now. In this time we have been extremely impressed with the quality of service, advice & support we receive from my Account Manager (Debbie Pyrah) and our Wine Development Manager (Marc Halliwell).

We wanted to take a moment to thank LWC for making such great wines available. Their quality and originality are a perfect complement to the great food we serve here at Blue Moon Thai restaurant.

All our customers thoroughly enjoy the wines they try, and it's a thrill to see everyone rating the wines so highly. It became difficult, in fact, to select the 25 wines now featured on our wine list.

It is very exciting for me to have the ability to pair these wine gems with my food, and in keeping thus with our mission to serve the best and healthiest food and beverage products.

Michelle, Blake & Tee - Proprietor

CHAMPAGNE

Champagne can be found in Northern France. The term 'Champagne' is exclusively for sparkling wines that come from this region.

There are 5 wine-producing districts, the 2 key towns being Reims and Epernay.

Interestingly, you can use both red and white grapes to produce Champagne – the grapes used are Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier (black), and Chardonnay (white).

Champagne is produced by the méthode champenoise, a traditional method of second fermentation in the bottle, which produces the fine mousse (bubbles).

Most Champagnes, including the Rosés, are made from a blend of all three grapes; however, we also have Blanc De Blanc ("white from white") Champagnes which are 100% Chardonnay and Blanc De Noir ("white from black") which are 100% Pinot Noir and or Pinot Meunier.

Non vintage – a Champagne blended from grapes from multiple vintages.

Vintage Champagnes are from a specific vintage/year.

INTRODUCING ALMA DE CHILE FROM THE VINA DE AGUIRRE'S ESTATE

For nearly 70 years, the De Aguirre-Etcheberry family have been farming in Chile's Maule Valley, and the decision to open their own winery in 2000 was a project of passion which continues today.

In a relatively short time, Vina De Aguirre has become one of Chile's most important exporters of quality bottled wine, winning numerous international awards and accolades, including over 100 gold medals from international wine shows. In 2011 it was the most awarded Chilean winery in domestic and international competitions.

The business today is still 100% family owned and is managed by the seven grandchildren of the founder Don Pedro.

Vina De Aguirre's estate and winery is located in Villa Alegre, 200 miles south of Santiago in the Maule Valley, which is the oldest region in terms of vinicultural history in Chile. Having a consistent, reliable climate, Maule is perfect for high-quality grape production. De Aguirre have planted 520 hectares of vines in blocks on the most suitable aspects for each varietal, using satellite mapping technology and soil analyses. The winery, barrel cellar and bottling hall is purpose built with the most modern winemaking processes, and is accredited with many international standards including ISO 26000 for Social Responsibility, reflecting the company's commitment to the local community and environment.

De Aguirre's wines are wholly consistent with what we expect from modern Chilean winemaking: concentration, complexity and varietal character, but with an added elegance not always found at these price points. 'Alma De Chile', meaning 'Soul of Chile', is testament to the Aguirre family's passion, not only of winemaking, but also for their horses and the Chilean countryside.

SOUTH AFRICA

The striking Durbanville Hills cellar sits on the side of a series of rolling hills with magnificent views of Table Mountain and Table Bay – the geography that lies at the very heart of what makes the wines so unique.

The Durbanville ward is considered one of the Cape's coolest wine regions, thanks to the sea breezes that drift inland from False Bay and Table Bay, and the late afternoon mists that bathe the slopes. These conditions are ideal for the slow ripening of the grapes, allowing them to develop their full-flavoured, intense character.

Our maiden Sauvignon Blanc Sparkling Wine consists of 100% Sauvignon Blanc grapes which were hand-harvested in the early morning.

DURBANVILLE HILLS SPARKLING SAUVIGNON BLANC (V)

The bubble in the wine elevates both the greener and the riper tropical elements of the Sauvignon Blanc, resulting in a delightful bouquet of green pepper, kiwi fruit, fig and gooseberry.

SPAIN

Our philosophy of constant innovation is evident in our most recent commitment to the signature wines range, Marqués del Atrio. A Rioja of the highest quality produced in our modern facilities in Mendavia. Here we bring together all our future advancements based on the integration of our longstanding tradition with the most advanced R & D. In fact, Marqués del Atrio is one of the five biggest wineries of D.O.Ca Rioja.

The grape is harvested in vineyards in Mendavia, located at altitudes between 300 and 600 metres. The vineyards have the perfect balance to allow the harvest of grapes at their best ripening stage. The low yields per hectare allow us to obtain a concentrated and aromatic wine.

THE WINE MAKER

“As a Chilean it was a challenge when I started working in Spain 10 years ago. My knowledge of the New World adapted to the world of European wines, known worldwide as the Old World very quickly. This has contributed to Marqués del Atrio producing some stunning wines. The adaptation was not difficult because the techniques used are similar for both worlds, but the soil, climate and vineyards most definitely create a multitude of challenges. With New-World background in Chile and the USA, I am now producing fruit-driven modern styles of Rioja for our worldwide consumers to continue to enjoy.”

PORTUGAL

Robert R. Reynolds, an English seaman and merchant, arrived in Portugal in 1820, attracted by the potential of the wine trade. Thus started the long association between Portugal and Great Britain of importing wonderfully fruity red wines from the glorious mountain region of the Alto Alentejo.

It is a proud family tradition that the wines carry the family names. Julian Reynolds Estate Reserva Red has the honour of scoring 92/100 points on the famous Robert Parker Scale, whilst the 'second' wine, named after his grandfather and son, Carlos Reynolds, comes very close at 88/100. These wines are special and can still be purchased at reasonable prices in order to offer your adventurous wine consumers something wonderful and new to try.

The vineyard is set in the Alto Alentejo in a place of immense beauty. The one-hundred acres of vines are planted on the hilltop, which provides excellent sunlight and drainage critical for the production of quality grapes. Julian and Carlos pay particular care and invest heavily in order to produce the finest grapes possible. They use the viticultural techniques of 'Vendange en Vert', i.e. Green Harvesting, in order to reduce the yields of young grapes so that the fruit flavours are concentrated into the remaining bunches, and Night-Time Harvesting, whereby, when the grapes are at optimal ripeness, they are picked in the cool night-time temperatures to retain acidity and fruit balance, and to delay fermentation until they reach the winery.

ITALY

Italy provides us with some of the oldest wine regions in the world. It contains 20 wine regions with over 350 grape varieties. The Italian classification system was first launched 1963 and has 4 basic categories.

GENERIC WINES AND VARIETAL WINES

I.G.T. WINES (PGI Protected Geographical Indication) This category is for wines produced in a specific territory within Italy and in line with the specific regulations.

P.D.O. - D.O.C. (Controlled Designation of Origin) – These wines generally come from smaller regions, and are particularly well known for their quality and history; they have more strict regulations for production, having been an I.G.T. for a minimum of 5 years.

P.D.O. - D.O.C.G. – A D.O.C. wine can be promoted to a D.O.C.G. if it has been a D.O.C. for at least 10 years. They are subject to extremely strict regulations and approved by committee.

ITALY

OTHER ITALIAN WINE TERMS

‘Classico’ is a wine produced in the oldest part of the protected region.

‘Superiore’ is a wine with at least 0.5% more alcohol by volume (i.e. 13 – 13.5% ABV) and with a strict quantity of grapes per hectare.

‘Riserva’ is a wine that has been aged for a minimum period of time specified.

ITALY

At Rocca, wines are created as a family tradition with Ernesto Rocca, the founder's grandson, now controlling the company together with his sons Paolo, Marco, Luca and Matteo. They produce some beautiful wines from their estate, Don Cataldo which, after an expansion, now extends to 100 hectares in Leverano, Salento.

ROCCA WINERY

In the early 1900s, Francesco Rocca established a small business trading his handmade wines within the local area of Salento. By 1936, his son Angelo had become involved in the business; he enhanced the wine production and built up a cellar in Nardò, Apulia—a relatively small operation in supplying wines to the local domestic market. In the 1960s, the first bottling line was bought and thus started the distribution of products under the Rocca brand. Gradually, production has grown, and Rocca wines are now distributed more widely than ever, having recently become available in the UK market. We are pleased to be distributing them.

FRANCE

Patriarche Père et Fils was founded in 1780 by Jean-Baptiste Patriarche and has grown dramatically from a small, traditional “Burgundy House” to one of the largest négociants in Burgundy.

WINE FROM THE HEART OF BEAUNE

The Patriarche Père et Fils range of Vin de France represents some of the best value-for-money French wines on the market. The freedom granted for wines produced under this appellation has given the Patriarche winemakers the ability to source wines from around France to create the best blends at affordable prices. For almost 60 years, they have been building strong, lasting relationships with winegrowers in Southern France, especially in the Languedoc-Roussillon region and in the Aude department. Such privileged relationships allow them to offer high-quality Vins de France, always with the same objective: to offer wines that express varietal character of the region.

THE PURE ESSENCE OF THE VARIETAL.

Patriarche's Viognier, Syrah Rosé and Cabernet Sauvignon are 100% from Herault. 90% of their Chardonnay is sourced from Herault with 10% from Charentes. 50% of their Sauvignon Blanc comes from Herault and 50% from Charentes, while the Merlot is predominantly from Herault with a splash from Ardèche. These regional blends, which can differ from year to year, mean that consistent quality can be achieved across vintages to produce excellent wines for every occasion.

KNIGHTOR

"FROM THE SEA AND WRINKLED LAND"

Knightor make premium-quality, limited-production wines from grapes grown on their own vines at the Portscatho and Seaton Vineyards on the south cornish coast.

A relatively hands-off approach to winemaking is taken. Although inspiration is taken from both the old and new worlds, there is no desire to mimic. With english wine the difference is generally the lightness and elegance of style – this is its hallmark and what it can do really well.

KNIGHTOR BRUT

Pale lemon green in colour with a lively mousse that quickly settles to a steady stream of fine bubbles. Aromas are wonderfully fresh, floral and fruity, dominated by elderflower, honeysuckle, pear and peach.

46122200 B1325 2

KNIGHTOR CARPE DIEM ROSÉ

It gives fresh summer fruit and floral notes, aromas of raspberry and strawberry. There is the slightest hint of oak, which marries well with the fruit. Wonderfully juicy with a dry finish.

46122202 B1326 2

KNIGHTOR CARPE DIEM

It is typically English in style, displaying delicate fresh fruit and floral hedgerow characters on the nose. It displays great balance with a medium fruit intensity of medlars, white plums and fresh grapes that express the perfect ripeness. On the palate it is dry and crisp giving generous citrus flavours and excellent purity.

46122210 B1327 2

KNIGHTOR VERMOUTH 15%

Citrus, mint and fresh sage aromas leap from the glass. An alluring, multi-layered nose that marries herbs with the delicate fruit aromas typical of our sparkling wines. The palate is equally appealing, sweet with a pleasant, gentle bitterness.

LEBANON

Lebanon's Bekaa Valley has evolved into a major wine-making region, with many wineries scattered along its wide, fertile expanses. It has been famous, over the centuries, for being the agricultural heart of the Middle East.

Since 1930, every aspect of production – grape sourcing, fermentation, oak-ageing and bottle maturation – has been trialed to achieve the ultimate expression of Musar's specific 'terroirs' (site-specific interactions of soil, vine, climate and time).

A GUIDE TO THE STYLE

In youth, Chateau Musar Reds are dense and richly-textured, with intense 'baked fruit' characters: plums, damsons, cranberries, cherries, figs and dates. Bordeaux grape Cabernet Sauvignon lends black fruit flavours; Rhône grapes Cinsault and Carignan contribute fragrance (violets; pepper) and supple spiciness. Lebanese: enticingly aromatic, with persistent fruit flavours. Over decades the wines acquire tawny hues and mellow notes. We still offer wines from the 1950s: mesmerising artefacts of vintage.

GRAPES AND VINES

Seven years in the making, Chateau Musar Red is a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Carignan and Cinsault from vineyards near the Bekaa Valley villages of Aana and Kefraya on gravelly soils over limestone. Planted from the 1930s onwards, yields are low from these mature bushvines (average age: 40 years): 35hl per hectare.

INDIA

A refreshing take on wine, Soul Tree produces wines that are mainstream and distinctive at the same time. They are true to varietal characteristics to taste, with profiles of the western palate, but are also a reflection of local terroir and of the tastes and palates of the growing region.

VITICULTURE

India is very different from other regions in the Northern Hemisphere as the harvest season falls in February-March, coinciding with the typical harvest season in the Southern Hemisphere. As a result of the tropical climate, vines stay evergreen throughout and do not become dormant, making it technically possible to get two crops a year in many regions. However, to ensure concentrated fruit and flavours, the industry has generally used a double-pruning, single-cropping strategy. The first pruning is carried out during the summer to induce vegetative growth, and the second pruning of matured canes is done after the rainy monsoon to obtain fruit that will eventually be harvested during late winter.

ROMANIA

Romania has a long winemaking heritage. Archaeological evidence suggests Romania boasts 6,000 years of winemaking history. There is more land under vine in Romania than in Australia, South Africa and Chile. It has 9 key wine regions that have massive variations in climate between the North and South.

Cramele [literally 'cellar'] Recaş is a premium wine estate located on the far western fringes of the Romanian region of Transylvania/Banat – near Romania's third largest city, Timisoara.

Founded in 1998, Cramele Recas is a private Romanian/British company owned by three families, including husband-and-wife team Philip and Elvira Cox and winemakers Hartley Smithers and Nora Iriate.

Today, after more than 30 million Euros of investment, Cramele Recaş is one of Romania's most important wineries, with a wide range of International and Romanian varietals planted in the 1,000 hectare vineyard, and with a state of the art 15,000,000 litre winery.
